

Victor Mallet

Asia Editor – Financial Times

Writer and Commentator on Asia

Professional Experience

- Victor Mallet has been a foreign correspondent and author for more than two decades, covering wars, famines, corporate scandals and much more across Africa, the Middle East, Europe and Asia
- based in Hong Kong as Asia Editor for the Financial Times, he leads the newspaper's editorial team on its Asia coverage and for FT.com

Published papers and media

- Victor Mallet is the author of the highly acclaimed book, The Trouble with Tigers: the Rise and Fall of South-East Asia, (Harper Collins UK 1999) which exploded the myth of the “miracle” economies of Asia
- Winner in 2005 and 2006 of the Society of Publishers in Asia's award for opinion-writing
- he is regularly interviewed for his opinion on radio and television including CNN and ABC in Australia

Victor Mallet - Personal information

- Asia Editor for the Financial Times since 2006 and Chief Asia Correspondent from 2003-6
- FT Paris Correspondent 2001-3, Southern Africa Correspondent 1998-2001, South-East Asia Correspondent from 1992-4, Middle East Correspondent 1988-91
- Before the FT, Victor was a correspondent for Reuters in Johannesburg, Cape Town and Paris
- Victor is a graduate of Oxford University and holds a degree in English

Sample assignments

- presents at various business conferences around the world, summits including e.g. the ADB annual meeting and to universities and business schools
- he is a seasoned moderator of business panel sessions at FT Conferences and other such events
- delivers informal dinner talks on Asia and its developments viewed from a financial editor's viewpoint