

Roman Scott

Chairman – The Calamander Group

Asia Economist and Financial Services Strategist

Professional Experience

- Roman Scott is based in Singapore and is a prominent figure in Singapore and Southeast Asia business circles
- an active commentator and advisor on economic developments globally and in Asia-Pacific
- his focus has been primarily on the financial services industry and also on the energy, oil and gas industry
- economic spokesman for the British Chamber of Commerce in Singapore since 2005 and is a Board Member
- regularly advising the British High Commission, UK government visitors and dignitaries to Asia
- Mr Scott is the founder of The Calamander Group, a Singapore based property and investment firm which he set up following a successful career as one of the world's top strategy consultants
- he enjoys over 20 years of board-level advisory experience to more than 50 financial institutions and Government agencies in the UK, Europe, South Africa, Japan and Southeast Asia
- formerly led the Boston Consulting Group's bank reconstruction and risk management work in Asia following the Asian financial crisis of 1997 including time advising the Indonesian Government (IBRA)
- he is a leading authority on Asian regional banks and an expert in the area of global wealth management

Media and public speaking

- a regular columnist for regional publications and invited onto BBC World for his interpretation and forecasts
- spokesman and presenter at the British Chamber quarterly economic update meetings
- always prepared to take a stand and tells things the way he sees them, Roman has been proved correct on the economic calls he has made since 2001 and during the recent financial crisis and economic downturn
- at business conferences, he captures audiences' attention from the very start through a combination of well-researched numbers, anecdotal examples, an engaging, forthright style and a good dose of British wit

Roman Scott - Personal information and work experience

- Calamander Group (1996 – present) – founder and Chairman, Managing Director of Calamander Capital
- Partner with Boston Consulting Group in Singapore (2000-2007) the bank restructuring business and leading the wealth management practice where he worked for most of the worlds major private banks at some point
- Financial Services sub-committee (2002) of the Singapore Government's economic restructuring committee
- Vice President and Head of Financial Services with Gemini Consulting (1993-1999) in Tokyo
- previously in the UK with The MAC Group (1987-92), a Boston-based strategy firm
- holds a Masters of Philosophy from Pembroke College, Oxford and a Bachelor of Science (Honours) from Manchester University and was educated at Dulwich College, London