

Teymoor Nabili

Executive Producer & Presenter, Channel News Asia
Professional Moderator

Moderator of Economic, Political and Business Issues

An outstanding veteran journalist and broadcaster of Asia and World current affairs

Professional experience

- Teymoor is an international journalist and TV news anchor with 25 years of experience. He has lived and worked in London, New York, Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur, Doha and Singapore, where he is now based. Over this time, he has devised, edited, written, produced and presented news and current affairs programming for Al Jazeera, BBC, CNBC, CNN and Channel 4 and Channel News Asia.
- He is currently the host and executive producer of two Channel News Asia programmes; Between The Lines, a nightly current affairs discussion focusing on issues relevant to Asia, and Perspectives, a regular series of panel debates recorded before a live audience in Singapore.
- The major stories he has covered include the 9/11 attack from New York City, the Asian tsunami disaster from Sri Lanka; the Iran Presidential election of 2009 from Tehran, the 2008 Olympics from Beijing and the earthquake/tsunami of 2011 from Japan.
- He has interviewed numerous world leaders and newsmakers, among them former Prime Ministers of Malaysia, Dr Mohammad Mahathir, Prime Minister of Singapore, Lee Hsien Loong, the current and former Secretary Generals of the United Nations, Ban Ki Moon and Kofi Annan, the former head of the European Central Bank Jean-Claude Trichet, and other international personalities including David Beckham.
- Teymoor was voted 'Best Presenter/Anchor' at the 2005 Asia Television Awards and shared a UK Royal Television Society Award for coverage of the Olympic bribery scandal in Utah.

Teymoor Nabili – Personal Bio

- 2013: Singapore: Channel News Asia – Executive Producer & Presenter
- 2005: Kuala Lumpur – joined Al Jazeera English.
- 2002: Singapore – CNBC on Asian business news.
- 1999: New York – CNN, creating documentaries on the rise and fall of the dot.com phenomenon.
- 1995: London - European Business News (latterly acquired by CNBC) and joined the BBC presenting business and world news as well as World Service Radio and the newly-launched BBC News 24
- 1993: Hong Kong: Reporting on the stock market for The Standard
- His career began in London with Money Marketing, a weekly publication for the financial industry.

Client testimonials

- His engaging style, together with an enquiring mind, grasp of current events globally and his ability to articulate clearly his message makes him a stand-out choice as a moderator and MC.
David Eldon, former Chairman HSBC Asia Pacific
- His keen intellect makes him an excellent interviewer. In particular, his ability to actually listen to what people are saying to him, and to interact with the answers they give, puts him head and shoulders above the rest of the crowd ... Teymoor is by far and away one of the best in the business.

Christopher Slaughter, CEO, CASBAA